

Reni

Headline: reni küng - curriculum vitae

Copy:

- born in switzerland trained as a graphic artist in zurich and worked in advertising
- designed lighting in London for four years
- 2003 moved to australia and begun creating her own work
- 2004 exhibition at michael commerford gallery , rushcutters bay, sydney
- 2005 commission of 14 pendant light-sculptures for 360 restaurant, centre point tower, Sydney
- 2006 commission of two pendant light-sculptures for christos restaurant, five ways, Sydney. sold lights through ecc lighting, sydney
- 2007 commission of a large wall light-sculpture for toko restaurant & bar, surry hills, sydney
- 2008 exhibition michael commerford gallery, rushcutters bay, sydney
- 2009 commission of a 11 meter long light-sculpture for tokonoma, cocktail bar and lounge, surry hills, sydney
- exhibition with vayu at the palm house in the botanical gardens, sydney
- 2011 'WALLPAPER UK design award 2011' (see WALLPAPER article in press room)

footnote: these are the major works and projects that reni has worked on and does not include all the smaller commissions and sales that have been made.